Y

es, the life of Dharmendra Kumar, who comes from a humble farming family in Bihar, has transformed with Galway in a way that has put him on the path to becoming a millionaire businessman. But life was never easy for him before Galway. His family's entire income depended on farming. After completing his Class 10 education, he could not find a good job and financial limitations raised serious questions about his future. With no money for higher education, even the possibility of securing a good job seemed distant. Uncertainty remained about how he could build a better future for himself and his family with limited resources. But perhaps life had something else planned. During this phase, Galway entered his life as an opportunity that gave him the courage to look beyond his circumstances.

9 Message to the Team
Stay determined to learn and keep moving forward.

One Opportunity That Changed His Destiny

Dharmendra did not see Galway merely as a source of income. He saw it as a pathway to fulfil his parents' dreams. Watching people from ordinary backgrounds earn recognition and move ahead on the Galway platform gave him the belief that success is not reserved for any particular background. A farmer's son can dream big and take determined steps towards achieving those dreams.

In the beginning, he too had to learn many things, meeting people, expressing himself, making consistent efforts and, most importantly, staying in the field despite rejection. These became important parts of his inspiring journey. Instead of giving up, he chose to learn and gradually, those learnings became the foundation of his success. His first incentive cheque was 400 Rupees only and there came a time when, as an LDD, he earned an incentive cheque of 3 lakh 87 thousand. So far, in his Galway business journey, Dharmendra has earned more than 1 crore rupees in incentives.

Training and guidance have played a significant role in Dharmendra's Galway journey. For him, learning was not merely a business requirement but a way to become a better version of himself. Through training, he understood the importance of team building and developed the confidence to express himself. His understanding of working with a team and his mindset of continuously moving forward have brought him to the rank of Distributor of the Month. Dharmendra believes that the real strength of any opportunity becomes visible only when a person has the willingness to learn, understand and consistently put that learning into action.

Growing the Business Through the Power of Retailing

Dharmendra says that the strong foundation of his business is built on Galway products and the trust of users. When he understood that the real power of retailing lies in understanding Galway products, experiencing their usage and quality, building trust in them and then taking that confidence to others, his roadmap to success became clear.

For him, retailing is not merely a means of selling. It is a way of building relationships with people and providing them with the right information. When a customer understands a product, uses it and feels satisfied, that is when the foundation of a strong and sustainable business relationship is created.

The Gift of Time & Money Freedom

Dharmendra's destination is not limited to today's earnings. For him, success means moving towards a life where both Time & Money Freedom can be achieved. When he used to spend hours working under the scorching sun in the fields without earning much in return, he understood the true value of time and freedom. Today, he works in a suit and tie with Galway and, along with financial growth, has experienced the gift of Time & Money Freedom through domestic and international travel.

The dream of providing his children with a good education has also become a reality, thanks to Galway. His wish to provide his parents with a luxurious life has also been fulfilled through his Galway business. There was a time when he did not even own a vehicle; today, he travels by air and has enjoyed trips to Europe and Thailand. Once Every success story comes with its share of tests. Dharmendra too faced rejection in the beginning. People made fun of him and, at times, made him feel that perhaps his decision was not right. But he never allowed those voices to control his pace.

He chose to treat rejection not as a weakness, but as a part of learning. He believes that if we stop because of difficulties today, the road to tomorrow's success ends right there. His story is a beautiful example of how sometimes, all it takes to change one's life is a golden opportunity like Galway and the rest of the journey is created through hard work, learning and determination. Dharmendra Kumar's journey is a story of transformation, a story of refusing to let big dreams die despite limited resources. Galway gave him the opportunity, the products gave him confidence and training gave that confidence the right direction and strength. Through retailing, he took product quality to people and made relationships the strength of his business. By continuously learning, he progressed on his journey to the LDD rank. But Dharmendra does not consider this his destination. For him, it is the beginning of the next chapter. His true success will come when, along with achieving his own dreams, he can help his team fulfil theirs as well. His message to his team is simple: work with honesty, follow your upline and understand the power of retailing Galway products.

Dharmendra says opportunities do not knock on everyone's door. But when Galway knocks, recognising that opportunity, learning from it and working on it with complete dedication is what defines success. His journey with Galway demonstrates that when product belief, trust in the system, learning through training and consistency in hard work come together, even a farmer's son can build the identity of a millionaire businessman.

Galwians Celebrates 80th Independence Day with Unity & Enthusiasm

On the occasion of the nation's 80th Independence Day, the Galway family came together across various Galway Zones in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and several other states to celebrate the spirit of freedom with immense enthusiasm, patriotic fervour and pride. Healthy Mind, A Step Towards a Positive Life

In today's fast-paced life, stress, anxiety, negative thoughts and mental fatigue are becoming a part of our daily routine. In such times, meditation is a simple and effective way to connect with yourself, calm your mind and bring positivity into your life.

Meditation provides freedom from stress and anxiety. It sharpens business focus and concentration toward goals. It fosters positive thinking amidst business rejections. Above all, it builds confidence in yourself and your business. With this exact purpose, the Self-Empowerment Program (SEP) was established under the Galway Foundation. Right from the start, SEP's objective has been to inspire people away from hectic lifestyles toward meditation, self-awareness, and a positive way of living.
